Érase una vez una gota muy pequeña de agua llamada

Hospitalidad

igual

que su madre.

Hospitalidad veía que cuando brillaba el sol

y hacía mucho calor...

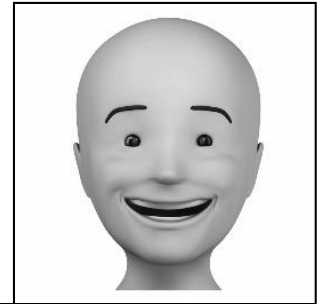

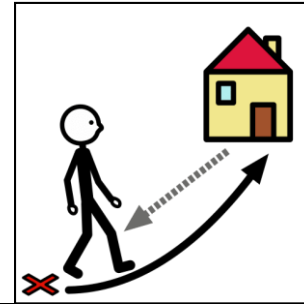

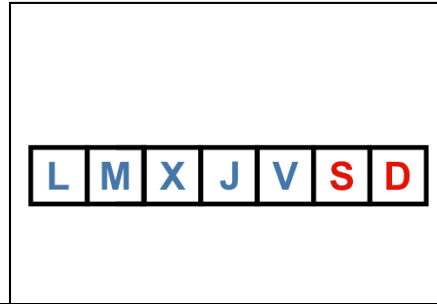

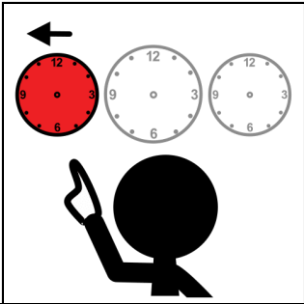

su madre

salía de

casa

y pasados

unos

días

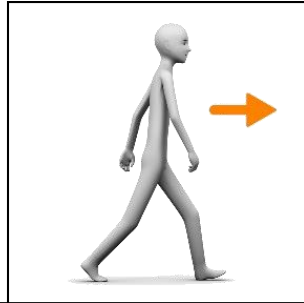

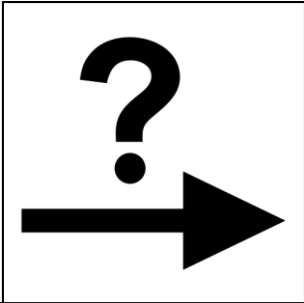

regresaba

muy

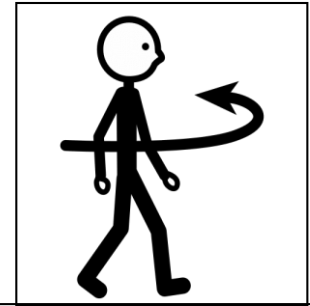

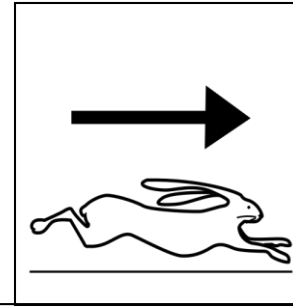

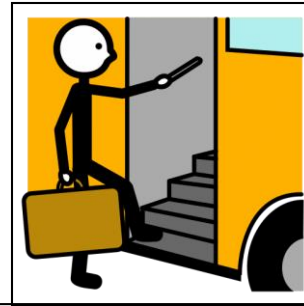

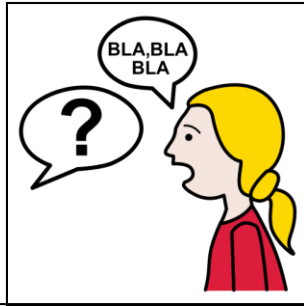

contenta.

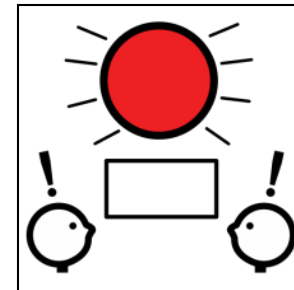

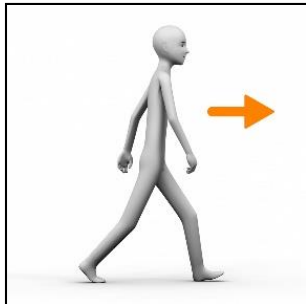

Hospitalidad preguntó a su mamá:

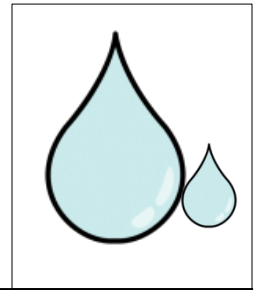

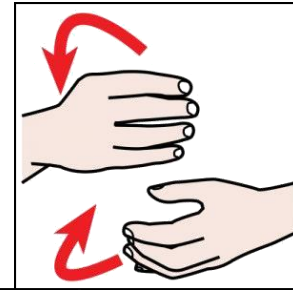

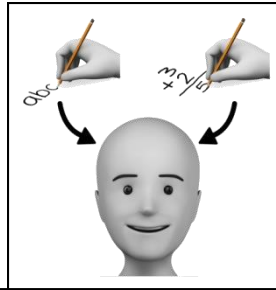

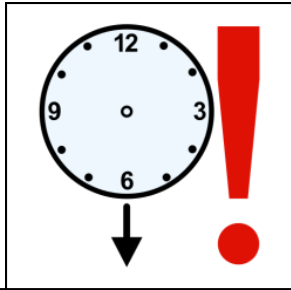

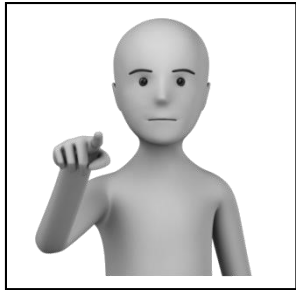

¿Dónde vas mamá?

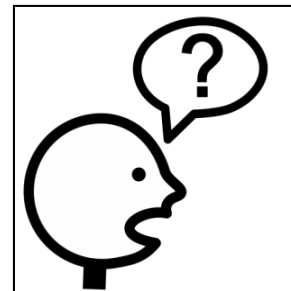

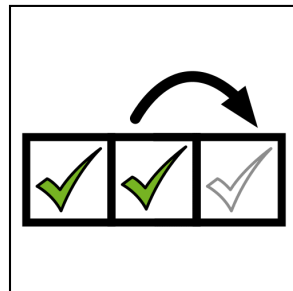

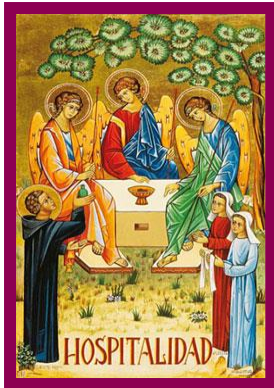

La mamá le respondió. Salgo de viaje, pronto regresaré.

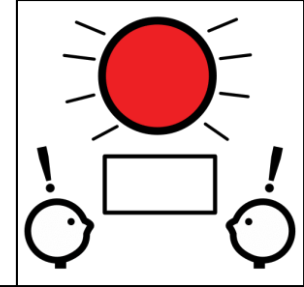

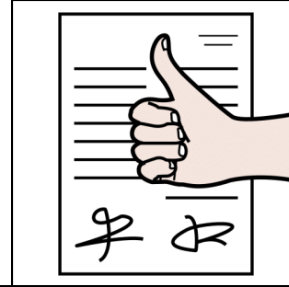

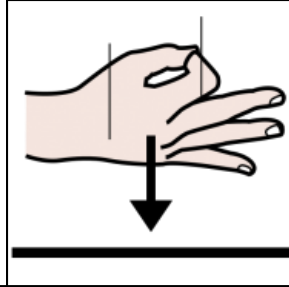

Voy a cumplir una Misión importante.

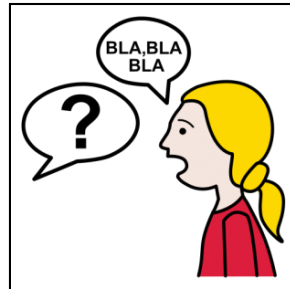

Tú pronto la aprenderás y la haremos juntas.

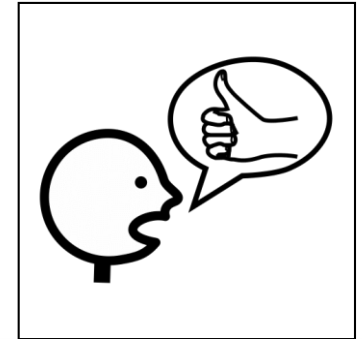

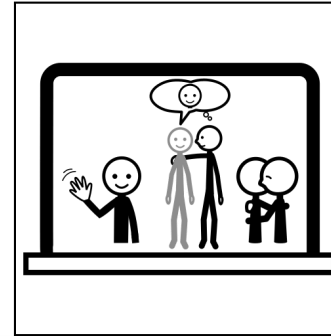

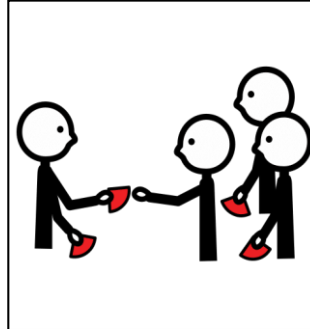

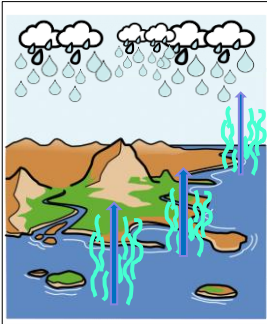

Hospitalidad volvió a preguntar:

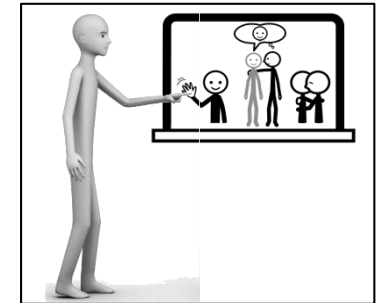

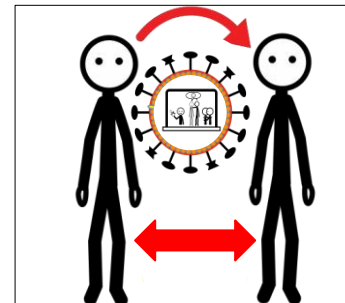

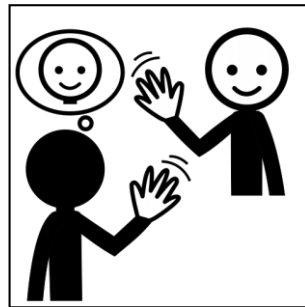

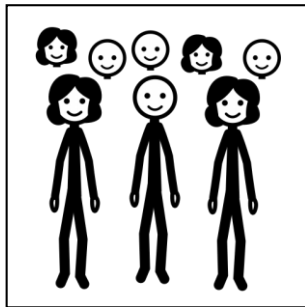

¿Y cuál es esa Misión tan importante?

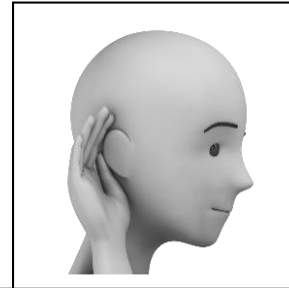

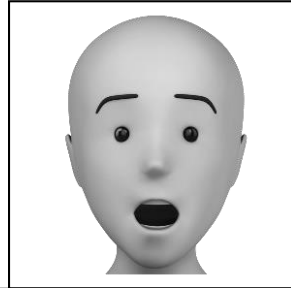

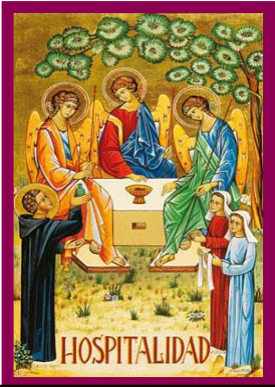

La madre respondió:

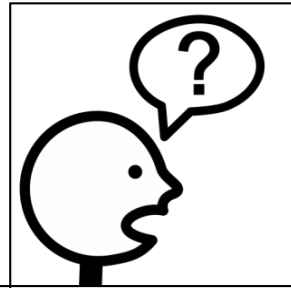

Hacer el ciclo del agua, repartir, valores y hacer posible que las personas los conozcan y se contagien de ellos.

Hospitalidad se sorprendió al escuchar a su mamá

y de nuevo, le preguntó:

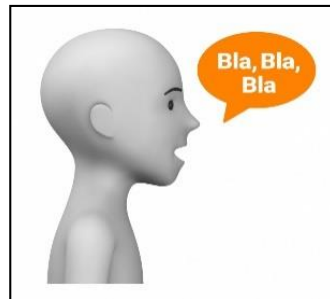

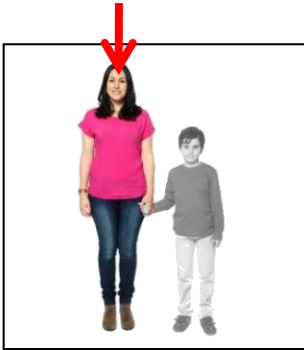

¿Pero mamá

cómo se hace?

Es

muy difícil.

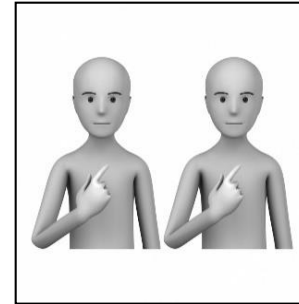

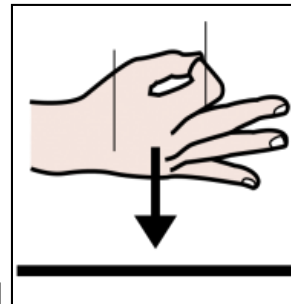

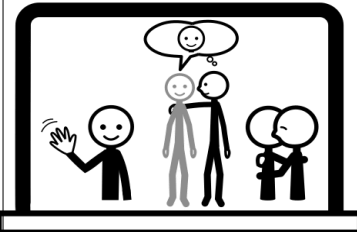

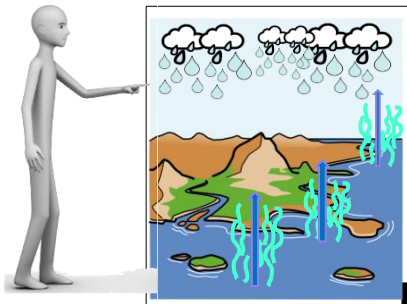

La mamá

dijo

a su

hijo:

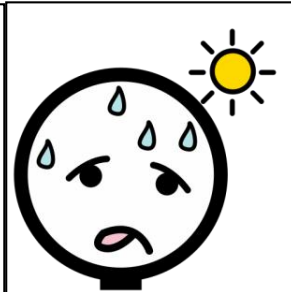

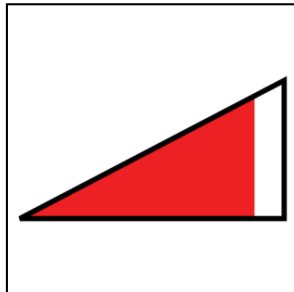

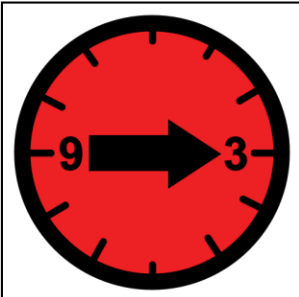

Esta

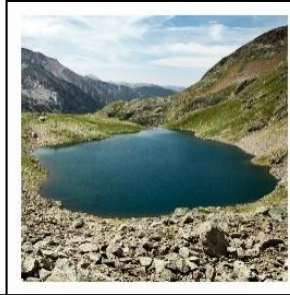

es

nuestra

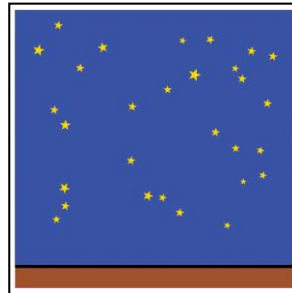

Misión.

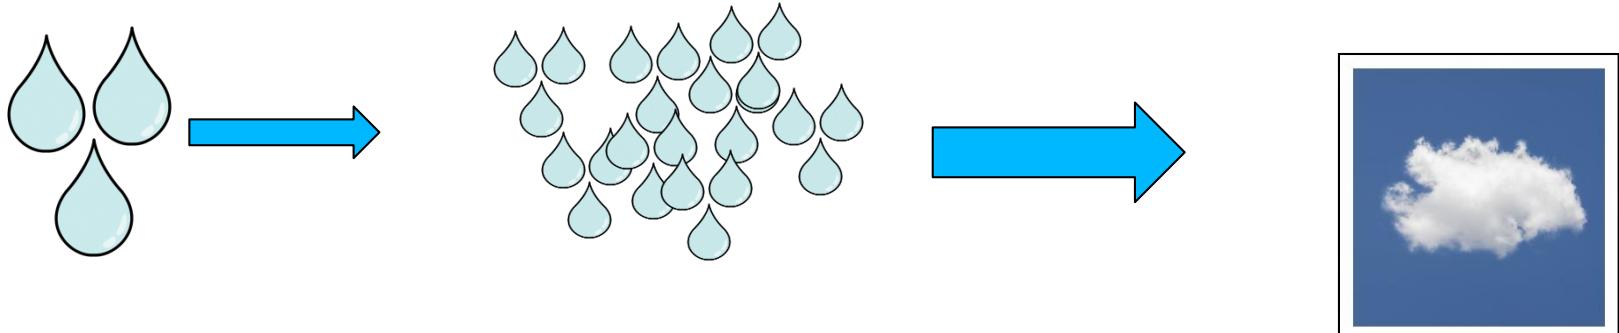

Cuando hace mucho calor, las gotas de agua que vivimos en los mares, los ríos y los lagos, nos evaporamos.

Viajamos hasta el cielo. Allí hace más frío.

Las gotas de agua nos juntamos y formamos las nubes.

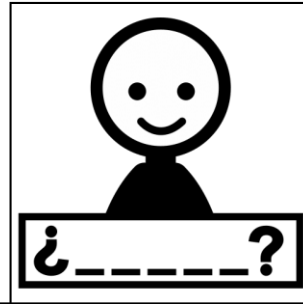

Nos hacemos amigas y pasamos un tiempo juntas.

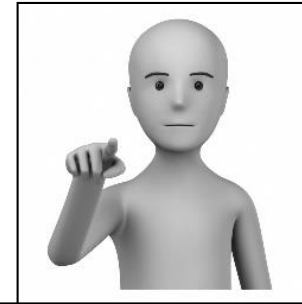

¿ Mamá

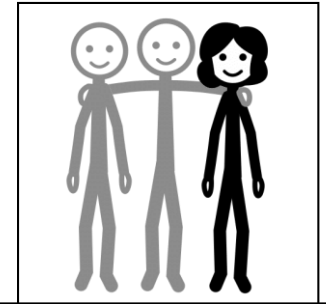

cómo

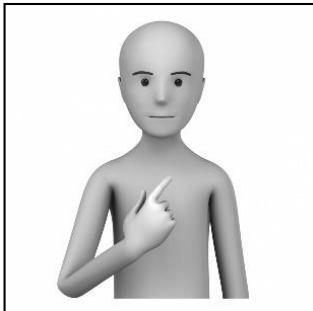

se llaman

tus amigas?

Mis

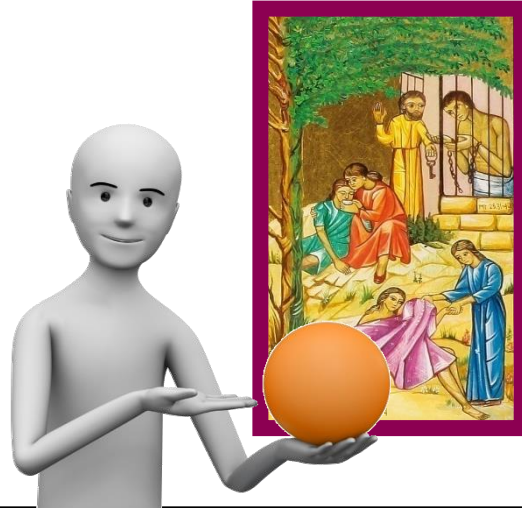

amigas,

se llaman...

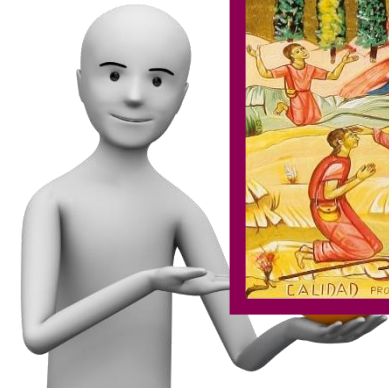

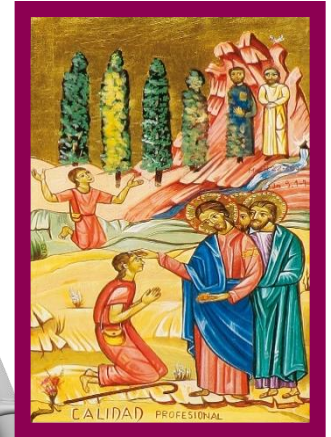

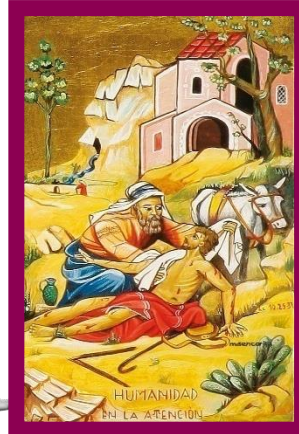

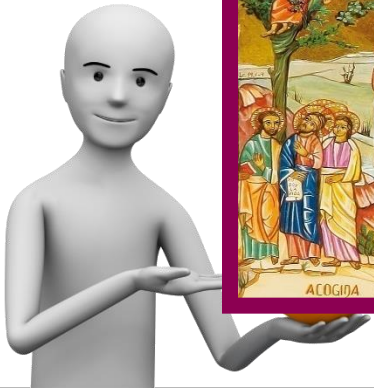

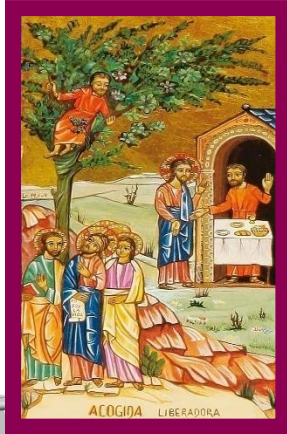

Sensibilidad,

Ética,

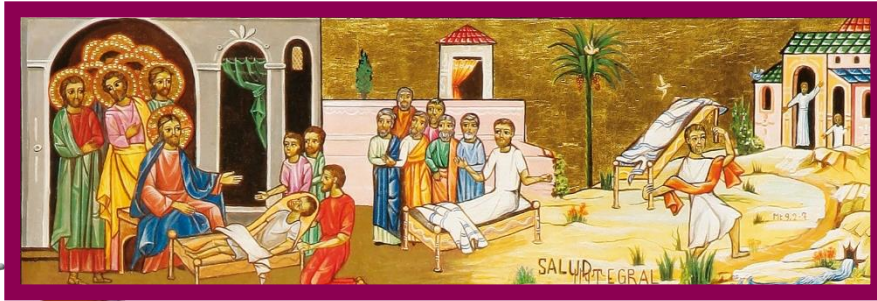

Servicio,

Acogida,

Humanidad,

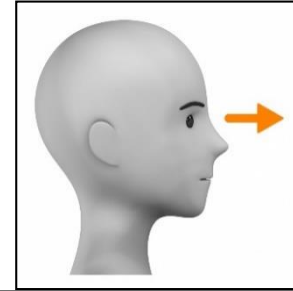

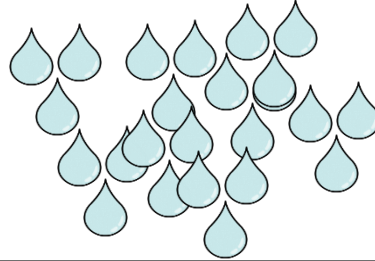

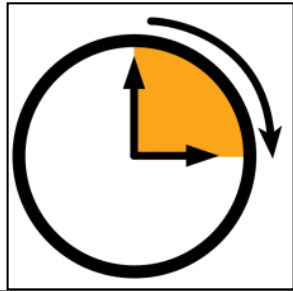

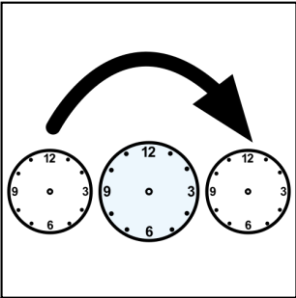

Calidad

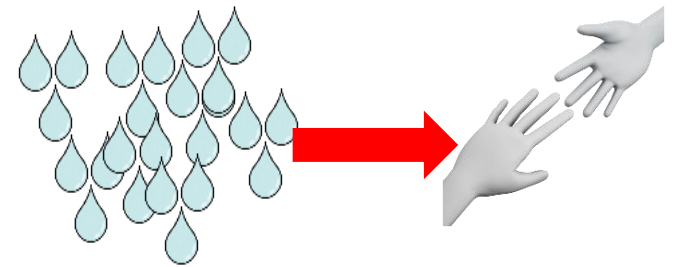

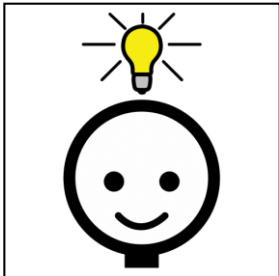

Salud

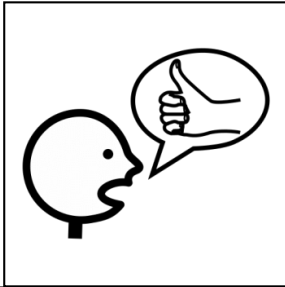

Historia

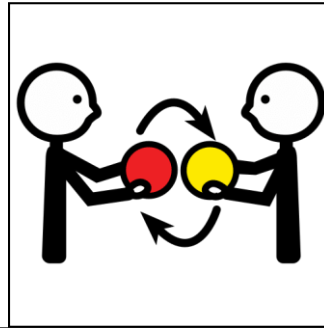

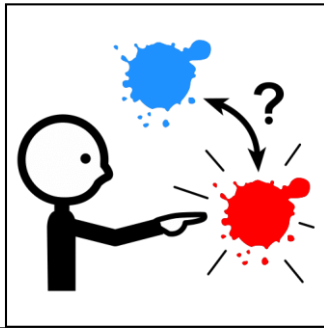

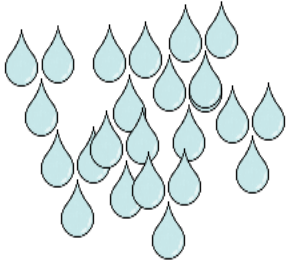

Durante el tiempo que pasamos juntas, miramos la tierra.

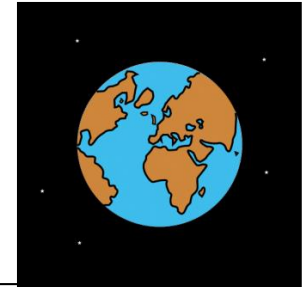

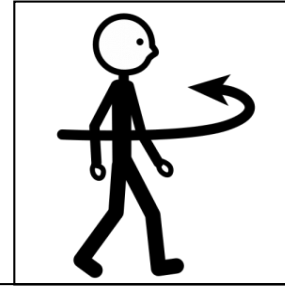

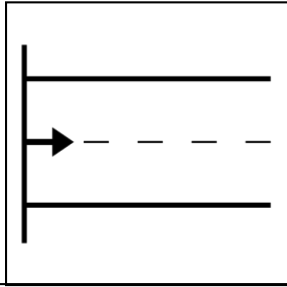

Descubrimos dónde es necesaria nuestra ayuda para conseguir que los mares, ríos y lagos tengan más agua.

Unas gotas deciden convertirse en lluvia y otras en nieve y comenzamos el viaje de regreso a la tierra.

Los animales, las plantas y las personas se ponen muy contentos cuando las gotas de agua caemos sobre la tierra porque venimos cargadas de sensibilidad, de voluntad de paciencia de cuidado, trabajo en equipo, humanidad, además cada vez que viajamos completamos el ciclo del agua y de esa forma los mares, los ríos y los lagos tendrán siempre agua.

Esas gotas de agua y copos de nieve hacen posible que el mundo

en el que

vivimos

sea

mejor
